FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Guam Humanities Council is excited to present the Third Annual Y Tinaotao 5K Run. The historically themed run follows a course in Hagåtña, taking runners to various sites from different periods of Guam's past. The Y Tinaotao 5K will raise community awareness and greater accessibility to the Council's diverse humanities programming, while highlighting our island's history and encouraging an active lifestyle among our residents. Runners and walkers will be treated to presentations and highlighted sites on the course.

The run will kick off at the Dulce Nombre de Maria Agana Cathedral-Basilica, circle past Ninth Street in Anigua, and end at Seaton Boulevard in Hagåtña. The first 500 finishers will receive commemorative t-shirts. The top 3 finishers (male and female) in 8 categories will receive awards. All participants will have the opportunity to win raffle prizes, including a trip from Delta Airlines, and enjoy free carabao rides provided by John L. Santos at the post race festivities at Plaza de Espana. A $200 donation will be awarded to a student body organization from the school with the highest number of registered participants.

The Guam Humanities Council is a local nonprofit organization affiliated with the National Endowment for the Humanities. We are dedicated to providing educational and foundational resources for the people of Guam through a variety of quality humanities-focused programs and activities. Our mission is to promote the humanities—the study of history, culture, language, religion, politics, law and other aspects of human experience—as a means to encourage island residents to think reflectively on important issues that affect our lives.

The proceeds from the Third Annual Y Tinaotao 5K Run will be used to support the Council's various community programs.

The Third Annual Y Tinaotao 5K Run will take place on Saturday, September 25. Show time is at 5:00 am, go time is at 6:00 am. The early entrance fee is $7 per person or $25 for a family of four. The entrance fee on race day is $10 per person. Registration forms and race numbers are available at Hornet Sports or the Council office in Hagåtña. For more information, please call 472-4460/61 or email cathy_ghc@teleguam.net.
